

The Delta Plus Group wins the 2017 Growth Companies Grand Prix

The Delta Plus Group, a major player in the Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) market, was awarded the Grand Prix trophy for growth companies in the “Industry” category, at a ceremony attended by more than four hundred participants at the Pavillon d’Armenonville in Paris.

Leaders League, in collaboration with the French Ministry of Economy and Finance, has been awarding French and French-speaking border companies for four years, which have seen a strong increase in their turnover in recent years and whose strategy combines innovation, job creation, collaborative management and social, societal and environmental responsibility.

This event honours companies of all sizes and sectors, in the image of the French economy.

The Delta Plus Group was awarded an industry prize of between 100 million and 1 billion Euro in turnover.

This award recognises the Delta Plus Group’s profitable growth for several years and accelerates its internationalisation, notably through several structuring acquisitions.
