

DELTA PLUS GROUP INTEGRATES THE ENTERNEXT PEA-PME 150 INDEX

The Delta Plus Group, a major player in the Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) market, today announced it has been selected to join the new EnterNext PEA-PME 150 index.

This index, launched on 17 November 2014 by EnterNext, a subsidiary of Euronext dedicated to the promotion and development of PME-ETIs, consists of 150 French PEA-PME eligible companies and are listed on the Euronext or Alternext markets in Paris.

The EnterNext PEA-SME 150 meets the demands of the financial industry to be able to provide a benchmark index for the medium sized PEA-PME eligible securities.

The sectoral diversity of this new index will offer investors a repository of the most liquid French listed SME securities.

The integration of the Delta Plus Group within the Enternext PEA-PME 150 index will help improve the visibility and attractiveness of the title for investors.

As a reminder, Delta Plus Group shares also form part of the following indices:

- CAC All Shares
- CAC All Tradable
- CAC Consumer Goods
- CAC Personal Goods
- CAC Mid & Small
- CAC Small
