

Transfer of Delta Plus Group security to the B compartment of the regulated Euronext market in Paris

Delta Plus Group, a major player in the market for personal protective equipment (PPE), announced the transfer of the security from compartment C to compartment B of the regulated Euronext market in Paris.

This change greets the Delta Plus Group's stock market performance of recent years and should contribute to enhance the visibility and attractiveness of the security for investors.

Compartment B comprises listed companies with a market capitalisation of between 150 million and 1 billion Euro.

The average capitalisation of the Delta Plus Group during the last 60 days of 2015 trading amounted to 158.4 million Euro.

This compartment transfer, which will become effective from Friday, January 29, 2016, has no impact on the ownership of indices in which the Delta Plus Group participates.
